

BIO/Introduction

Our speaker today, Heather Schultz, loves Reece Peanut Butter Cups. In high school she was a baton twirler until she caught the football field on fire and was asked to leave. She loves dogs and people... and in that order. Heather has worked with HBO, appeared in People magazine and numerous television programs. She has spoken in 49 states and 7 other countries. Alaska is the one state she has yet to speak in so if know anyone in Alaska looking for a speaker hit her up. She has traveled the world sharing her message of resilience, embracing failure and taking control of your future. Please welcome Heather Schultz.
